

IMAGES OF PROMISE 2013

Early Trinity

Black Women

Black Methodist

FEATURING: 2013 IMAGES OF PROMISE CALENDAR

This colorful 2013 calendar honors our biblical roots and reflects our cultural heritage through 13 vivid, stained-glass windows belonging to historically black, Pan-Methodist churches—each a masterpiece of breathtaking artistry!.

Only $10

Please call 973-408-3862 for special rate on bulk orders of 25 or more.

"We've Come This Far by Faith"

A 5-Video Series on Black Methodist History

Only $10

Explore the dynamic history and resilient legacy of a faithful African American people who overcame racism and rejection to serve their God and help unite a denomination.

See these unforgettable, epic stories spanning five U.S. jurisdictions of the church. Use them to enhance your worship, Christian education and Methodist heritage celebrations.

Purchase our DVDs on Black Methodist history in the Northeastern, North Central and Western jurisdictions for only $10 at the AAMHC vendor's table.

DVDs for the Southeastern and South Central jurisdictions may be ordered for shipping after May 1.

Black United Methodism: Retrospect and Prospect Only $19

By The Rev. John H. Graham

First published in 1979. Long out of print but republished in 2011 on behalf of the African American Methodist Heritage Center.

This seminal history of African Americans in the UMC and its predecessor bodies—both informative and inspiring—reaches back to 1758.

Highlighted are remarkable black churches, schools, societies and conferences. Graham ends his retrospective with a call for more efforts to achieve real racial inclusiveness in the church.

PLEASE MAKE CHECKS PAYABLE TO AND MAIL TO:

African American Methodist Heritage Center
36 Madison Avenue, Madison, NJ 07940
www.aamhc-umc.org | aamhc@aol.com | 973.408.3862