

Methodist history is expressed uniquely in our society. The African American Methodist Heritage Center announces the 2014 AAMHC calendar, which celebrates the banners that are displayed in various artistic mediums in churches, and on their websites. The banners honor the legacy and tradition of early Methodists and embrace the uniqueness of the current age. This calendar honors the history of the member churches of the Pan Methodist Commission.

*the African Methodist Episcopal (AME),
the African Methodist Episcopal Zion (AMEZ),
the African Union Methodist Protestant (AUMP),
the Union American Methodist Episcopal (UAME),
the Christian Methodist Episcopal (CME)
and United Methodist churches.*

This calendar is a publication of the African American Methodist Heritage Center (AAMHC) of the United Methodist Church. The African American Methodist Heritage Center exists to provide research, to preserve artifacts and other memorabilia, and to protect and promote the stories of Black people who have been a part of Methodism since its inception in the 1700s.
